PRACTICING WHAT WE PREACH

We've been steadily and proactively working to reduce the use of hazardous materials in our products and in our manufacturing operations.

- We reduced mercury content in total U.S. lamp shipments by 67%, and in our four-foot fluorescent lamps by an average of 80%.
- We use only recycled mercury in our fluorescent and HID lamps.
- We offer the only lead-free, mercury-free high pressure sodium lamp on the market.
- We've reduced the mercury content of our top linear fluorescent models by up to 50%.
- Our own SYLVANIA Lighting Services includes lamp recycling in every service and maintenance contract, sending 8.5 million lamps to recycling facilities every year.
